Week 5 Results

A special shout-out to all team captains—our transition to DartConnect has had its ups and downs, and this week brought a few hiccups in the matrix. Thanks for sticking with it and reaching out when things don't look quite right.

We've also got a special announcement: newsletters now have a permanent home on the website at www.SVDA.org/Newsletters/. You'll also find the link under "League Info" in the menu. Now you can share them easily and revisit past weeks any time.

Week 4 stats are below-enjoy!

Let's check out the division standings. These are available online—both on our website (www.svda.org) and on DartConnect's public page (https://tv.dartconnect.com/league/SacVDA) for this league.

Due to there only being 5 teams in A this season and the postponed match, the win/loss record is not telling the whole story, yet.
